

985 Harley Strickland Blvd. #100 • Orange City, FL 32763 • www.agingtree.com • customerservice@agingtree.com

NEWS FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 13, 2014

News media contact:

Corey Shenk, CEO

Aging Tree, L.L.C.

E: coreyshenk@gmail.com

P: (386) 774-2446

JANUARY 18 WINTER FESTIVAL AT AGING TREE, ORANGE CITY, TO OFFER FREE SENIOR CARE RESOURCES

Local businesses participating with free information, seminars and health screenings

(January 13, 2014) Orange City, Fla. – Senior citizens, their families and caregivers are invited to participate in Aging Tree's first annual Winter Wellness Festival from 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 18. The event is presented by ElderAssistance and sponsored by Hearing Healthcare, Accardi Pharmacy, Dignity Memorial Gardens, Post Mastectomy at Vienna, and Diabeticshoeman.com.

The event will be held at Aging Tree, which provides senior living products, services and answers, at 985 Harley Strickland Blvd., Ste 100, Orange City, in the Kohl's Shopping Plaza. Admission is free.

Local senior-care-related businesses will be sharing information about resources available through their organizations. Festival highlights include:

- Free food and drinks and hourly giveaways
- $1,000 scooter giveaway
- Free blood pressure checks
- Free pain relief session
- Free hearing test
- Free mastectomy product fittings
- Free diabetic shoe giveaways
- Specials on retirement living
- 50% off select home handicap equipment
- Free balance test
- Free carotid screening ultrasound

-MORE-

985 Harley Strickland Blvd. #100 • Orange City, FL 32763 • www.agingtree.com • customerservice@agingtree.com

Page 2 of 2

Jan. 18 Winter Festival in Orange City

In addition, the Aging Tree is hosting several discussions:

- 10:30 a.m. – Open Discussion and Question Session by Dr. Jay Chanmaugam, D.O.
- 11:30 a.m. – When is the time for Assisted Living? Discussion – Annette Lynch
- 12 p.m. – Diabetes Health Discussion (speaker TBA)

Aging Tree represents a network of member businesses that include Continuing Care Retirement Communities (CCRC), skilled care nursing and rehabilitation facilities, assisted living facilities, independent senior housing communities, affordable housing communities (HUD and Tax Credit), home health and home care, adult day care, attorneys, advocates (financial and geriatric care management), real estate and relocation services, and transportation.

Aging Tree also acts as a resource for “daily life” needs such as housekeeping, nutritionists, home maintenance, transportation services and lawn care through its resource library. All representatives and companies affiliated with Aging Tree have been screened for insurance, licensing and other certifications.

Aging Tree services are provided free to seniors and their families; the company is supported by member businesses. Aging Tree bridges the gap between the aging and the services they need, and supports itself through membership open to any publicly owned or non-profit, charitable tax-exempt organization providing care, products housing or services to the elderly.

Aging Tree’s mission is to provide safer and easier access to senior care-related products and services to the families and caregivers of our aging population. Through its network, Aging Tree provides dedicated resources to guide to the families of seniors in our community through screened providers in a one-stop environment to showcase their experience and services. To learn more about Aging Tree, visit www.agingtree.com, www.facebook.com/agingtree or call 386-774-2446.